Shri. S. K. Goel, Secretary (R), Cabinet Secretariat, New Delhi has intimated that R&AW is the premier intelligence organization mandated with providing external intelligence inputs to the various decision making authorities in the country. The organization provides a healthy work environment to energetic and sincere officers. The experience and expertise acquired by these officers, while working in R&AW, would help them in upgrading their skills and knowledge which would be useful even after they revert to their cadres.

Owing to the specialized charter of work allocated to R&AW, the deputation tenure in R&AW is for a period of 12 years i.e. initial tenure of deputation for 4 years, extendable for another 8 years in two spells of 4 years each.
